JEFF DAVIS RATIFIES THE NOMINATION AT ST. LOUIS.—A letter written from London by Jefferson Davis to John Kelly, Tammany Hall, reads as follows:

Dear Sir: I am obliged to you for your kind attention in transmitting to me an invitation to attend your Tilden and Hendricks ratification meeting at Tammany Hall. I am heart and soul with you in the good cause of Democratic restoration and reform. The St. Louis nominees can count on an almost undivided South in their support. I know Tilden and Hendricks well. While the Southern people were bravely contending in the field for four long years of cruel war, your nominees, both in the forum and as private citizens, were giving their political comfort and aid to our righteous cause. I think we will gain all that we lost in the war between the States in the election of those glorious champions of State sovereignty and the constitution as it was. Distance, however, will put it out of my power to be present at your meeting, and I use the Atlantic cable to telegraph you my greetings. I shall be home in November to raise my voice and use my influence with the Southern people for our nominees, whose triumph would be hailed here in England with almost as much joy as it would be in the halls of Tammany. Perhaps I may favor my Democratic friends in New York with a speech on completing my European mission.

Yours ever for Democracy and reform.

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

An Irishman's friend having fallen into a slough, the Irishman called loudly to another for assistance. The latter, who was busily engaged in cutting a log, and wished to procrastinate, inquired, "How deep is the gentleman in?" "Up to his ankles." "Then there is plenty of time," said the other. "No, there is not," rejoined the first; "I forgot to tell you he's in head first."

"Mother," said a little urchin when he came home, "I have seen such a smart preacher. He stamped and made such a noise, and then, he got mad; he shook his fist at the folks, and there wasn't anybody dared go up and fight him." A wholesome rebuke for some preachers.

"People may say what they will about country air being so good for them," said Mrs. Partington, "and how they get fat upon it; for my part, I shall always think it's owin' to the vittles. Air may do for camamiles and other reptiles that live on it, but I know that men must have something more substantialler."

To keep the rind and juice of lemons, grate the rind and mix with equal quantity of sugar; bottle, cork, and seal, squeeze and strain the juice, and to a pint allow one and a quarter pounds of sugar; leave it a day or two in an open vessel, then skim, bottle, cork and seal.

On the frontier it is regarded as an unmistakable sign of Indians to discover a man with twenty bullet holes in his body and a hairless, sanguinary place on top of his head.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22, 1876.

Advices received by the Republican National Committee are most encouraging from all parts of the country. Secretary Chandler returned from New York a few days since, where he had been on business connected with the committee, and reports that the information received from the great West is entirely satisfactory and that the Democracy has no show whatever in that section, including the Pacific States. In New York Hayes' prospects are brightening every day and there is no longer a reasonable doubt but what that State will give a fair majority for the whole Republican ticket in November. The disadvantages under which the Democracy of New York are laboring, under the leadership of Tilden, who has succeeded in foisting two renegades upon the gubernatorial ticket, is being sorely felt throughout the State. The greatest dissatisfaction prevails in regard to the State ticket, and a very bitter feeling is engendered against Mr. Tilden for dictating their nominations. So great is the feeling that many prominent Democrats are in open hostility to that portion of the State ticket, and the consequence is that the party is pretty generally demoralized and their chances of success are greatly diminished. Tilden is a great demagogue and rules the party with absolute power, and in attempting to run it in his own interest he has committed a fatal error which will cost him the State in November. Mr. Tilden's blunders in manipulating the State conventions, together with the facts that have lately been made public in regard to his revenue taxes and other important matters, have driven from him a large support that would otherwise have been given him, and to-day he is more unpopular with his party in his own State than in any other State in the Union. New York may be safely classed among the Republican States.

The Democratic chivalry of the South are still rampant and announce their determination to carry the "United" South, at all hazards, for Tilden and Hendricks. The Charleston (S. C.) Courier, speaking of the late disturbance in that city, in which several colored Republicans were murdered, heaps it all upon the Republicans and says: "They must be held to stern and swift account by the community, whose bitter foes they are." "Stern and swift account" means bullet and knife, as South Carolina Republicans have reason to know. The Bainbridge (Ga.) Democrat prints "a warning" to the detected minions of the Republican party and says: "If they do not wish to bring down vengeance terrible upon their heads, they will withdraw from the South and permit White Democrats to pursue their plans unmolested." The Petersburg (Va.) Appeal, in speaking of certain Republicans, says:

"These are the missionaries of mischief, at whose bosoms the people of the South should strike if any disorder is forced upon them at the polls." "They will be the men to suffer," it adds, "and the habit of punishing them might as well be begun at an early as at a late day."

These extracts reflect the sentiments of the Southern Democratic press, which are hardly reconcilable with Mr. Lord's "fair election" resolution offered in the House just before adjournment. Consistency however, does not enter very largely into Democratic tactis either in the North or South, notwithstanding it is said to be a jewel.

It is a most encouraging fact that business prospects are looking up. In New York, we are informed, a very decided improvement in sales has commenced, and that merchants from the interior are purchasing more liberally, and that a general revival of business and a happy return to prosperity are unmistakably indicated. We trust the report is well founded.

After a long incubation, we have what purports to be a reply to the charges preferred by the New York Times against Samuel J. Tilden, relating to his false income return in 1862. This answer does not come directly from the accused, but is the work of the cunning brain and ready pen of Judge James P. Sinnot, who was his law clerk in 1862 and prior years. The fact of Tilden's selecting a deputy or agent to draw up and publish a defense is in keeping with his character as an artful dodger, who would not be made personally responsible for adding falsehood to fraud.

The Times published a statement of items of income received by Tilden in 1862, aggregating $108,000, from which was deducted $6,500 for expenses of office, &c., and $12,500 for fees received but not earned, in that year, leaving $89,000 as net income. For this year Tilden returned the moderate sum of $7,118, thus fraudulently concealing $81,8 2, and thereby cheating the Government out of four thousand two hundred and thirty-six dollars and forty-six cents ($4,236 46) of income tax for the year 1862 alone.

Judge Sinnott, in his labored defence of his client or employer, takes up seriatim the thirteen items of which the Times' statement is comprised. To all of them except the last ($1,000 as salary as President of a Dry Dock Company) he puts in, for his principal, the plea of not guilty. The Times expresses its willingness to meet Mr. Tilden or his clerk on the issues of fact presented, and shall, with the haste which the examination of a mass of legal and other records admit of, prove that he has attempted to conceal perjury by falsehood and to hide fraud by the arts of the pettifogger and shyster. The Times will, no doubt, make this promise good and show that this floundering on the part of Mr. Tilden and his friends to escape the punishment due the former will only sink him deeper in the mire of infamy.

The items from one to nine, inclusive, in the Times' statement, are for fees and amount to 49,000. There is no positive denial of the receiving of this amount in 1862, but it is claimed that it was mainly earned in prior years. This is, to a great extent, an evasion, but admitting it to be true, the proportion belonging to 1862, the dates of the payments running from February 19, 1862, to November 7, of that year, would be largely in excess of the amount returned as income. Item ten, for fees amounting to $20,000, it is claimed was not received in 1869, and item eleven, for fees amounting to $15,000, is denied in toto. Item twelve, amounting to $25,000 in bonds for fees, is acknowledged in part to be true, but it is claimed that whatever amount was received was no doubt accounted for in the return. Item twelve, amounting to $1,000 for salary, is acknowledged to be correct.

From the foregoing imperfect review of Judge Sinnott's own showing of Tilden's income for 1862, will any sane man believe that his income for that year, after making all lawful deductions, was no greater than $7,118, the amount returned? The lie is pictured so plainly on the forehead that "he that runs may read."

EPSILON.

SO NATURAL.

Many years ago, when speculation in real estate was very active, the owner of a farm at Greenpoint, now Brooklyn, L. I., a widow, was desirous of selling it, and had fixed the price at $10,000, but it appeared to be overlooked for a long time. Finally the widow's son, an easy-going countryman, while at the grocery store in the village, heard a stranger inquiring for land, and offered his farm.

"What is the price?"

"$100,000."

The stranger looked over the property and asked the terms.

"One-half cash, the other half in five annual instalments, secured by mortgage on the property."

After a few moments deliberation, the stranger accepted the offer, paid an earnest of $500, and ordered the papers made out at once.

The son returned home to announce the news. "I've sold the farm, ma."

"You don't say so, how much?"

"Guess."

"Ten thousand."

"Guess again."

"You didn't get $15,000?"

"Guess again."

"Well, I'll make it enough this time, $25,000."

"Guess again."

"I shan't guess no more, I know you are fooling."

"Well, ma, I have sold it for $100,000."

"Good gracious," exclaimed the old lady, when she could get breath. "On what terms?"

"Half cash, and half yearly for five years."

Then human nature spoke out, "You great fool, we shall never get the rest of the money in the world!"

The money, however, was paid, and the tract is now owned by Union College, N. Y.

"Madam," said a trance medium, "your husband's spirit wishes to communicate with you." "No matter," said the widow. "If he's got no more spirit in the other world than he had in this, it's not worth bothering about."

"I'm saddest when I sing," said a Sunday evening warbler. "And so's the whole neighborhood!" roared an unmusical voice in the street.

The same Bible that gives us the Ten Commandments, enjoins that charity which believeth all things, hopeth all things.

Death is like the mole; his progress is known by the mounds he throws up.

INDICTMENTS AGAINST TILDEN.

The Brooklyn Argus, an independent Democratic newspaper, owned by the Hon. Demas Barnes, an ex-Democratic member of Congress, sums up its charges and proofs of Mr. Tilden's delinquencies in the following terse and expressive indictments:

1. Tilden swindles Michigan out of his land taxes.

2. Swindles the Government and smuggles a relief bill through Congress.

3. Makes false income returns.

4. Swindles laborers by compelling them to take illegal due bills, and then shaving the due bills.

5. Swindling the Government out of taxes on whisky, calling it "ether."

6. Aids in forming the first "railroad conspiracy" in the United States.

7. Head of the greatest railroad ring in America.

8. Makes fraudulent issue of stock—compelled to refund $200,000.

9. Election frauds. The adviser of Tweed's New York ring, the Credit Mobilier ring, the Northwestern Railroad ring, the Mining ring and the Michigan ring.

10. Tweed nominates Tilden for the Presidency and is released.

11 Disregard of his official oath; public conspirators not molested.

12. Deserted his party and helped defeat Lewis Cass.

13. Results of his boasted canal resorm—one conviction, no money recovered and $92,000 expended.

14. Defeating the Reform Constitutional amendments.

15. What Chairman Tilden did for New York and Brooklyn.

16. Executive signature given to a corrupt and unconstitutional bill.

17. How he secured the nomination, bargains with ring men, packing State Conventions and suborning newspapers.

19. Surrender of his hard money principles to the soft money inflationists.

The pulbic schools opened for the Fall and Winter season yesterday and every child in Detroit felt happy for an hour or two, if not longer. A boy go-going down Second street from the Cass school at noon met a boy going up from the Porter street school, and the Cass boy called out:

"Hain't school bully though!

"You bet!" was the prompt reply.—"How's your teacher?"

"Nicest person you ever saw. I snapped six paper wads this forenoon and never got licked once!"

"Just like mine," called the other "When she saw me sticking a pin into a boy she smiled and smiled, and I believ she's got a heart like an angel."

Those lads may meet a week later, and when they compare notes the first one will remark:

"I'm licked regularly three times a day and for nothing at all."

"So am I," will be the mournful echo of the other.

The Democratic party is in a worse position than the British Light Brigade when "some one had blundered." The month of September is more than half gone; the day of election is not to-morrow, but it is not far off; yet nobody can say that the Opposition is squarely in line—hardly that it has arranged any plan of battle. It is a remarkable fact, unprecedented so far as we remember, that the most promising Democratic devices have thus far abominably miscarried. When it wrs first made, the nomination of Gov. Tilden was thought to be a strong one, yet, little by little, it has settled down almost to a point of unimportance, showing an alacrity at sinking for which we are unable satisfactorily to account.

The New York Graphic was one of the first Democratic papers to advocate the nomination and election of Mr. Tilden, and it did so powerfully and effectively. But the Graphic has soured on him, and having become convinced of his rascality and general unworthiness, backs square off in this positive manner. It says: "We are frank in confessing that Mr. Tilden has failed to be the popular candidate we supposed he would become. In view of his utter breakdown as a candidate, we seriously suggest that he should take counsel with his friends and resign the Democratic nomination for the Presidency."

A widow at Long Branch was emphatic on the horrible figure that the loveliest woman must cut while bathing.

A gentleman remarked that the Queen of Love and Beauty was fabled to have sprung from the foam of the sea, and that she must have been charming.

"Oh, yes; but she had nothing on. I should look charming——"

Here her speech came to a sudden halt, and observing roses blooming all over her face, the gentleman said: "I have no doubt of it," and walked away.

There were two masked robbers with a double bareled shotgun and revolvers. One of the men was tall, the other of medium size; both slim. They sawed Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express box open, and took all the money, which was $228. The checks and other papers, as well as the nine bars of bullion and five passengers on board, were unmolested.

MUSICAL REVIEW.—The September number of this excellent monthly contains a large variety of interesting matter, comprising musical miscellany, correspondence, criticisms of concerts editorial items, etc., and twelve pages of vocal and instrumental music. The music alone in each number, is worth the subscription price per year, $1 50. Send your subscription in currency, stamps, or coin, to the publishers, Sherman & Hyde, San Francisco.

The Democratic ticket has been elected by 1,100 majority in Kennebec county, Maine. The Legislative ticket was reduced to 700 majority by an Independent. Colquitt's majority in Augusta was 1,500.

It is estimated that the supply of trade dollars now on hand on this coast is about $1,650,000. Up to the 1st inst. $14,653,400 of these coins were turned out at the San Francisco Mint. $12,999,400 have been exported.

John L. Routt, who has just been elected Governor of Colorado, was formerly a resident of Bloomington, Illinois, the citizens of which place were greatly elated at his election, as he was highly esteemed there.

A letter from Newton Booth states that at the urgent request of the Indiana State Central Committee, he will remain in that State up to the day of election, when he will leave for California.

A dispatch from Jackson, Miss., says: Well informed politicians predict that should Indiana go Republican in October the Democrats would quietly give up Mississippi in November.

COLORADO.

"The result in Colorado is not surprising. This State is really a Radical colony, and those best informed about its politics have had no anticipation of a Radical reverse at this time. A comparison of this election with that of 1874 is unfair, the result in that year being due to the fact that the Radical candidate—Bromwell—was very obnoxious to the bulk of his partisans, and the Democratic nominee for delegate to Congress—Patterson—was a very clever man and extremely popular with all classes. But Colorado from her settlement has been as intensely Radical as Vermont, and being largely out of the range of the civilizing influences of the Centennial year, by reason of her comparative isolation, she could not have been regarded as a safe State for the Democracy."

The above we clip from the S. F. Examiner. For coolness it is unsurpassed. According to our cotemporary the want of civilization defeated the Democracy. Boss Tweed, the biggest theif on record, is too honest to claim that the bulk of his party is civilized, or in other words, intelligent, wherever the people are intelligent, and thrifty, and loyal, the Republicans rule; but amid the haunts of ignorance, squalid poverty, vice and disloyalty, the Democracy is rampant. And why is it that the parties are so wide apart in these respects? The free schools of the world, and the Republican press of our country are recruiting the great Republican army. The admirable public school systems of Germany, Denmark, Norway and Sweden have destroyed the Democratic party in the Northwestern States. Nine-tenths of the American youth grow up Republicans; the educated English and Irish are mostly with us; the balance will be found in the Democratic party. Hence Colorado has gone Republican by 2,500 majority, electing the entire State ticket, Congresman, three-fourths of the Legislature; securing two U. S. Senators and three votes for Hayes and Wheeler. Having given a Democratic majority of 2,500, two years since, the State was claimed for Tilden.

The Chicago Tribune prints statistics showing that the Democrats have carried Indiana in six out of the last ten October elections, and says: "Since 1868 Indiana has been a Democratic State and if that party carry it on the 10th of October, they will merely hold their own; if they lose it, the Republicans will have gained a Democratic State. As the canvass now looks to us, General Harrison will be elected Governor."

The following from the Coast Review, the only Insurance Journal on the Pacific Coast, is to the point:—

"For faithful and economical management, the Mutual Benefit has a record equal to any Company in America. Its dividends paid to GROSS premiums received, have been LARGER than those of any other Company for the past ten years, and its average ratio of expense of management to income, since its organization, only amounts to 8 and 76-100 per cent. It is PURELY MUTUAL, dividing up the surplus annually with the policy-holders. It is a sound and reliable organization, under judicious management, and entitled to the full confidence and liberal patronage of the public."

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

SMASH UP.—On Tuesday last, two Frenchmen arrived here from Carson, and drove up, one horse open buggy, to the Exchequer mine. On their return, the impetus of the vehicle pushed the horse at breakneck speed down the steep grade, and between the I X L and Pittsburg mines his plungings were terrific, and as he came up to the Pittsburg house the lines were thrown upon his back, the occupants of the buggy saving themselves by jumping out.—Failing to make the turn of the road, a few rods below the house, the animal plunged over the precipice, and made a sheer descent of one hundred and fifty feet. In going from the road he went through a hole, formed by rocks, with such a tight squeeze that the harness was completely stripped from him; the shafts and front wheels went through the apperture, but the balance of the buggy pitched over the rocks and landed some distance from the horse. Of course, it was a grand smash up, and the owner, abandoning the wreck, footed it out of town, a sadder, if not a wiser man.

TAXES.—The Board of Supervisors met on Monday and levied the following tax—a reduction of 7 cents from last year.

State	$0 75½
Salary Fund	1 00
General Fund	25
Contingent Fund	25
Annular Debt Fund	25
School Fund	31½

NEW JAIL.—The new jail at Markleeville is finished and is a creditable affair to the Sheriff and the county. Its small cost and substantial build is a just rebuke to the high priced, flimsy jail at Silver Mountain.

SALUTE.—Upon receipt of the news of the Republican victory in Colorado, a salute was fired by the Republicans of Silver Mountain.

I X L MILL.—On Monday last one of the boilers arrived at the mill; the other will be here next week. The building is going up with dispatch.

DISTRICT COURT.—This Court, Hon. Theron Reed, Judge, presiding, commenced its October Term on Thursday last and adjourned to-day.

DEPUTY SHERIFF.—Sheriff Scott has appointed Herbert R. De Long, of Silver Mountain, Deputy Sheriff.

COUNTY SURVEYOR.—On Monday the Board of Supervisors appointed D. D. Reaves County Surveyor.

FISK'S HOTEL.—Under "New To-Day," it will be found that this hotel is open for business. We commend it to the public.

THE WEATHER.—This week we have had warm weather.

A curious discovery has been made in the convent of Santa Maria la Nuova, at Rome, which formerly belonged to the Franciscan monks. It consists in three underground cells, accessible only through a hidden trap door, and where monks guilty of grave offences were probably put. In the first there is a little light, through an opening in the wall; the second is narrower and darker; the third is without a ray of light and is a dismal hole. Sinister and mostly obliterated inscriptions cover the walls, and numerous instruments of torture, as well as human bones, were found.

Petroleum V. Nasby, in the Toledo Blade, says: "I notis that Tweed is capchered. Ef the Dimocrisy uv Noo York ever permit him to come off uv a ship alive they are ideouts. Meciful hevins! the idee of his ever being brot back to tell wat he knows uv rings, with Tilden ez a reform candidate! Whenever a Dimocratic statesman gits thro with steeling, he ought, for the sake uv his survivors, to be immejitly killed. The bringin back uv Tweed is a Republican trick. It is takin a mean advantage uv our reform candidate. Ef Willyum hez the stubs of his check book about his person, Tilden is a lost man."

TO SHAKE OR NOT TO SHAKE?

Aye, that is the question. Is it better to quiver from head to foot in the paroxysms of fever and ague, or to banish the atrocious disease by a course of that standard anti-febrile remedy, Hostetter's Bitters. There cannot be much doubt as to the response of the malaria-stricken to this inquiry. From every locality on this continent whose inhabitants are tormented with the shivering plague comes an increasing demand for the only genuine preventive and eradicant of malaria provided by science. The denizens of fever and ague districts well know how utterly inadequate to do more than give a brief respite are the so-called remedies of the faculty. Quinine, arsenic, bismuth—what are these but poisonous palliatives, which cease after a time to produce any beneficial effect whatever, and if persisted in wreak irreparable mischief upon the system? Everywhere they are being abandoned by intelligent persons, and that genuine vegetable specific for intermittent and remittent disease, Hostetter's Bitters, substituted in their places.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28, 1876.

As we near, day by day, the 10th of October, public anxiety is becoming more and more intense in anticipation of a grand Republican victory in the great State of Ohio, the home of the gallant General Hayes, the Republican standard bearer—in the coming Presidential election. It will be found to be wise to direct attention to those Congressional Districts now represented by Democrats who were chosen by accidental majorities in 1874, the off year, when party lines were not distinctly drawn.

In Ohio there are five, probably six, Congressional Districts which can be redeemed at the October election. That State is now represented by thirteen Democrats and seven Republicans. We see it stated that Gen. Garfield predicts a gain of four Districts, making the delegation stand eleven Republicans and nine Democrats. Others more sanguine claim a gain of six members. The following review seems to justify a certainty of redeeming at least five of the misrepresented Districts. We will refer to them in numerical order:

2nd District. This District is now represented by General Banning, an ultra-Democrat, who received 1535 majority over Steven, the Republican candidate. Stanley Matthews has been nominated as the Republican candidate for the forty fifth Congress. This has been a most happy selection, as his personal popularity is by no means confined to his own party. His ability and honesty are recognized by all who know him. On a fair showing, the 2nd District is Republican. There is no reason why Mr. Matthews should not be elected.

3d District. This District is now represented by John S Savage, who was elected as a Democrat over John Q. Smith, the Republican nominee, by 1162 majority. This District should be represented by a Republican. The party has presented a new candidate in the person of Mills Gardner, who is acceptable to every Republican in the District. His political friends are sanguine, entertaining no fears of defeat, and there will be none unless it be the result of remissness on the part of the Republicans of Butler, Clermont, Clinton, Fayette and Warren.

4th District. This is also one of the misrepresented Districts, the present member being John A. McMahon, who was elected by 1099 majority over L. B. Gunckel, the Republican candidate. The Republicans have wisely pursued the same policy in this District that they have in the other misrepresented Districts in Ohio. They have not run the risk of placing defeated candidates again in nomination. In this District they have nominated John Howard, who will unite the whole strength of the party and thereby secure an election, thus giving the District a representative whose political principles are in harmony with those of the majority, when fairly expressed.

6th District. This District is now represented by Frank H. Hurd, an out-and-out Democrat, who was elected by a majority of 1837 over Pratt, Republican. In making a nomination of a Republican candidate for the forty-fifth Congress, the party in this District acted most judiciously. A bitter fight has been waged between the friends of rival candidates. A thoughtful suggestion was made by wise peace makers that Gen. Jacob Dolson Cox, of Toledo, should be chosen as the nominee. This was at once accepted, and the nomination, Gen. Cox is known throughout the length and breadth of the land as a brave soldier in the war to crush out treason and save the life of the nation, as a State Senator and an able Governor of his State, and as Secretary of the Interior. His selection as a candidate has quieted all discord and given confidence that this District will be redeemed.

9th District. This District is another of the misrepresented on the floor of the House of Representatives. The present member is E. F. Poppleton, who was elected over J. W. Robinson, the Republican candidate, by the small majority of 423. At the same election there were cast for Harrod, Prohibitionist, 1045 votes. The present Republican candidate is J. S. Jones, of Delaware, Ohio, whose nomination seems to have given entire satisfaction. The Republican press of the District is unanimous in expressing full confidence as to the election of Mr. Jones. From what is said of him, there can be no doubt of his ability to properly represent and do credit to his constituents.

11th District. In the calculation which would give us a total of six redeemed Districts in the State of Ohio, this one must be included. It is represented, or misrepresented, by the notorious John L. Vance, of Gallipolis, who made himself so conspicuous at the recent session in besmearing far better men than himself with that slanderous filth so copiously at his command. He was elected over R. S. Bundy, the Republican nominee, by 1941 majority. The Republicans have now nominated Henry S. Neal, while the Democrats have again nominated Vance and it is a consummation truly to be wished that the former may be successful in defeating the slanderer of private reputation.

"Robeson has no money to pay the officers of the active list," says the N. Y. World, but "he has money enough to keep in commission such useless vessels as the Michigan on the lakes." This vessel is the only man-of-war in fresh water, and is the only representative of the United States from Buffalo, N. Y., to Duluth, at the head of Lake Superior, whose tour of duty comprises Lakes Erie, St. Clair, Huron, Michigan and Superior, the greatest inland seas of the world; a vessel which has rescued hundreds of lives, millions of invested capital, and yet to suit party purposes it is stigmatised as "useless" by an organ who owes its very existence to the commerce the Michigan has protected, and that, too, in hours when human power seemed set at defiance by the mighty and unlimited powers of the storm-king. Verily,

"The perturbations, the perpetual jar,
Of earthly wants and aspirations high"

must have muddled Manton Marble's brain.

Alarmed at the prospect of a visit from Yellow Jack, a "reform" organ in New York shrieks: "Let the city be cleaned; cleaned thoroughly and cleaned at once." Would it not have been a very proper thing to do when a ward of that city gave the "reformer" Hoffman 4,500 votes more than there were voters registered in it. It could stand such a "cleaning" now and Sing Sing gain nobly in population by it. By all means let the city be cleaned.

There are many words being wasted over the fact that "Boss" Tweed will probably have a free ride home at the public expense. We consider it eminently proper that he should be permitted to return in such a manner, the more especially when we remember that "Boss" Tilden has been riding on "free passes," and living at the "public expense" derived from others' railroad stocks for lo, these many years?

EPSILON.

Terra del Fuego has been traversed by Lieut. Masters, R. N., who has discovered that the natives believe in devils and hold them to be the departed spirits of members of the medical profession. The main object of their religious ceremonies is to keep these devils at a distance from them.

What's the use of showing that Hendricks was mixed up with a disreputable mule claim? It is a mere waste of time. It won't lose him a voice. If the party had nominated the mules instead of Hendricks, the faithful would have voted the ticket all the same.—Armstrong Republican.

J. C. Wilson, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of Colorado, telegraphs the following: "Our entire State ticket is elected. The Legislature is secured, with the Electoral vote for Hayes and Wheeler, two United States Senators and the member of Congress."

The steamer Leopard, at St. John's, Newfoundland, reports the loss of 37 vessels with their cargoes on the Labrador coast. No lives are reported lost. All the vessels lost were in harbor and at anchor.

The so called safe burglary case, in which Babcock and Somerville were defendants, and which had been on trial for two weeks, was concluded on Saturday, the jury returning a verdict of not guilty in each case.

The Pacific Railroad Company intend at the close of the Centennial Exhibition to donate their entire exhibit to some museum or educational institution, possibly the museum at the Central Park, New York.

San Francisco is to have her Centennial on Sunday next. On that day one hundred years ago, as the records tell, the first settlement was made on the sand hills of that city.

Never before in the history of piano forte manufacture has an instrument risen so rapidly in popular favor.

Its intrinsic merit and decided superiority over all others has caused every musician and artist of note to adopt and recommend it.

Nilsson says, "I shall take every opportunity to recommend and praise your instruments."

Miss Kellogg says, "Your Pianos are my choice for the concert room and my own house."

Lucca says, "Your uprights are extraordinary instruments, and deserve their great popularity."

Patti says, "I have used the Pianos of every celebrated maker, but give yours the preference over all."

Strauss says, "Your Pianos astonish me. I have never seen any Pianos which equal yours."

Wehli says, "Madame Parepa called your Pianos the finest in the United States. I fully endorse that opinion. They have no rival."
